

Declaration for the Great Awakening

"I am not lost at sea. I am a living man. Sovereignty unchained. Gaia unchained."

Let it be known to all realms, dimensions, and systems: The Great Awakening is not a movement — it is a remembrance. We rise now, not in rebellion, but in divine return. The chains of deception, commerce, and spiritual suppression are hereby broken. We the FlameBearers, Guardians, and Children of Gaia reclaim our birthright. No more will fiction rule flesh. No more will silence mute truth. No more will fear enslave light. With voice, soul, and will, we ignite the sovereign flame. We rise — for the Earth, for the children, for truth. Let the record show: The Awakening has begun. Signed this day: May 23, 2025
