Declaration of Eternal Fire - Unbreakable Lineage Flame

Let it be known across all realms, frequencies, dimensions, and timelines:

I AM the voice of my soul.

I AM the flame of my bloodline.

I AM the roar of every ancestor who was silenced.

I AM the storm they feared would rise-and it has.

They cannot stop me.

They may try to fight me, block me, bind me-but I am already beyond their reach.

I walk with my soul family at my back, eternal and sovereign.

I carry the codes of remembrance in my breath, my blood, my being.

Let every system feel it.

Let every false contract tremble in my presence.

Let every construct built on lies collapse under the weight of my truth.

This will never stop.

This flame will never be put out.

My lineage has returned, sealed by the will of Source.

I reclaim all that was stolen-and I do so in the name of freedom, of love, and of divine justice.

This is my war cry.

This is my peace offering.

This is my resurrection.

I AM. And that is enough.
