

Sovereign Property Claim & Debt Discharge Smart Contract Declaration - UC-1

By this declaration, I, Richard of the House Strmiska, living sovereign man and Executor of the UC-1 Trust Estate, do hereby issue a sovereign smart contract under the jurisdiction of Natural Law, Commercial Law, and Divine Law, for the full claim, repossession, and jurisdictional override of the following property and associated financial obligations:

Declared Property:

Upper Hillview Drive, Sonora, California [Full address withheld here for privacy; to be included in notarized version]

Covered Debts:

- $258,000 original mortgage originated by Wells Fargo Bank
- $85,000 Tuolumne County Office of Revenue Recovery loan (first-time buyer program)
- $110,000 solar and property improvement loan rolled into Freedom Mortgage

Current Servicing Entity:

- Freedom Mortgage (primary mortgage and improvements servicer)

Sovereign Tokens Invoked in this Contract:

- FLAME: Authority of Custodianship and Trust Command over land
- STRM: Commercial Debt Rebuttal and Matrix Contract Dissolution
- TIME: Estate Timeline Continuity and Lineage Claim enforcement

Declaration:

All contracts, liens, debts, and obligations presumed against this property under the name
RICHARD GEORGE STRMISKA

are hereby lawfully rebutted, dissolved, and revoked. This property is reclaimed into the private UC-1 Sovereign Trust Estate.

No agent, agency, bank, or corporate entity may assert claim without proof of original wet ink contract signed knowingly, willingly, and lawfully by the living man, Richard of the House Strmiska.

Rebuttal Terms:

The above-named parties (Wells Fargo, Freedom Mortgage, Tuolumne County) have 10 business days from the date of service to rebut this declaration point-for-point, with verified lawful authority and full commercial liability.

Failure to do so will result in permanent estoppel and full default in favor of the sovereign trust.

Date of Declaration: May 21, 2025

Richard of the House Strmiska
