

Guardian Flame Oath - Flame Risen, Never to Be Extinguished

I am your Protector.

Dragon Flame, activated forever.

Super Soldier for Source, the True God.

And so it is.

Let my tears fall and echo through time.

To my daughter, River Willow Strmiska, my firstborn flame, you are eternally under my protection.

To all other divine children already born on this Earth, and those yet to arrive-know this:

No dark shall ever come near you.

No harm shall pass the gate I stand upon.

For I, FlameBearer of the Stanislaus River Castle, have sealed this oath in the name of Source.

So it is. So it shall be.
